ResourceWest advances its mission through its Social Services and Children and Youth Programs. The Social Services Program offers case management and resource connection services to community members seeking greater stability. It provides one-time emergency assistance grants for challenges such as transportation, childcare, medical costs, and employment. Another aspect of the Social Services Program includes financial assistance for childcare and academic support, covering 50% of tuition costs for eligible families for both childcare and tutoring. The program also offers information and referral services, where case managers help connect individuals with other agencies that provide assistance with food, housing, clothing, healthcare, employment, and more. 112 community members were supported by emergency assistance and childcare and academic assistance grants.ResourceWest fulfills its mission through its Social Services and Children and Youth Programs.
